OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C. January 18, 1881.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of yesterday enclosing for transmittal to the Treasurer of the U. S. an acknowledgment of the receipt of a draft, I would say that acknowledgments of the receipt of drafts from him can be mailed directly to him as in cases of other correspondents.

As an account is kept in this Office of the advances made from each appropriation for the support of the Mint service I will thank you, however, to advise me upon the receipt of each advance of funds from the appro-
